The only addition that I would offer is that the decision to treat the Gold King mine discharge is still under consideration. This is because the marginal increase in metals concentrations above the historic levels from ongoing mine discharge may not be significant. Predicting this change is somewhat complicated but estimates are being made.

The bigger problem is the combined discharge from 4 abandoned mines of @ 300 million gallons per year for the last 6 to 10 years since the American Tunnel was plugged by SGC and water levels were caused to rise above the other mines.

Hi Richard and Lisa,

We (OSRTI) received the following media inquiry through the EOC PIO and are working to provide answers. We would like R8 input/review into our proposed responses, below. It appears from the email chain that the JIC and Area Command weighed in initially. We will work with OSWER and EOC PIO to respond once we hear back from R8.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks

Melissa

Good afternoon OSWER Team,

Below is a media inquiry and draft responses (in blue below) prepared by the JIC with input from Area Command. It's in regards to the commercial water treatment facility to be installed ahead of winter. Please review and add input as necessary. Due date: unspecified, reporter has been requesting for a few weeks now.

Thank you.
